THE INTELLIGENCER.

NEWS SUMMARY.

TRIEVES are wonderfully adroit in New Orcans. At a large wedding party there a few days since, the guests got cheated out of their supper in a novel way. A gang of rascals entered the dining-room by a back window, gathered the edges of the table-cloth together, and folding it into a bundle, made off with everything hat was upon the table, including the family plate, valued at some hundreds of dollars .-When supper was announced, the guests got there but the table was bare, and so the poor guests got none Anguicas genius and talent is receiving substantial acknowledgment abroad. Professor Morse is coming home with $80,000 in his pocket, the fruit of his telegraph in Europe.-Hoe is working mammoth presses for the London Times. Eaton & Gilbert are making cars for Cuba and Brazil. The Queen of Spain is buying her war steamers in New York. The Czar has become a patron of the Novelty Works, and Rarey, the American horse tamer, is winning golden opinions in England and France for his wonderful skill.

Tugue are in the United States one hundred and four railroads, of which twenty-two are now in progress of construction. Of this entire number, tifty eight are paying dividends of from 2 1 2 to 22 per cent, per annum. The argest dividend is made by the Galena & Chicago Road, and the smallest by the Kaleigh & Gaston. The debts of the different companies are enormous-the lowest $8,141, and the highest $28,831,478; and it also appears that twenty of the companies have borrowed the round sum of two hundred millions of dollars.

A messenger boy in Boston, running across Milk street with one hundred and fifty $2 bills of the Malden Bank in his hands, caught the arm of the porter of the establishment to which he himself belonged, and in doing so the bills were scattered broadcast in the wind. All but some fifty of them were found, and these alighted in an express wagon, the driver of which, surprised at seeing them there, and thinking them shopkeepers' advertisements, gave some

A Boston paper of July 17th, 1758, contains he following: "Just imported from Africa, and to be sold on board the brig Janney, Wm. Eliery ommander, now lying at New Boston, a number of likely negro boys and girls, from 12 to 14 years of age. Inquire of said Ellery, on hoard the brig, where constant attendance is given. Note.-The above slaves have all had the small pox. Treasurer's notes and New England rum will be taken as pay."

Mr. GINDAHL, an editor at Stockholm, Sweden, was recently condemned to death by the ixe, for having falsely and with evil intentions secused Mademoiselle Mandelssohn of Incest. His counsel, Mr. C. G. Uggla, has been condemned to one month's imprisonment, and to the interdiction, for having, with full knowledge, under taken the defense of an unjust cause.

THE hodge podge Womens Rights Abolition-Spirit-Rapping Jack of all trades Convention at Rutland, Vt., is attended by at least one thousand persons, we are told. Nobody doubted that the fools are not all dead yet, but who could have thought that as many men and women could be raked together outside the lunatic sylums? "Resolutions were introduced on Spiritualism anti slavery, marriage, maternity, the Bible, land reforms, free trade, the Sabbath and divine worship."

While their hand is in, why not introduce some resolutions defining the precise position of the Convention on the old hen question, the diagnosis of stump-tail milk, the pathology of pork, and the peregrinatory processes of green cheese. Also, as a subject of discussion,whether, when the brains are out the man (or woman) will die?" Bold man who would take the affirmative, with those Rutland reformers before him.
